

ASSUMPTION OF RISK, WAIVER, AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

In consideration of The Timothy Initiative, Inc. (“TTI”) permitting my attendance and participation in the activities concerning an event named Global Partners Weekened located in Naples, Florida from November 4, 2021 through November 7, 2021 (the “Event”), on behalf of myself, my heirs, and my personal representatives (collectively, “I,” “me,” “my,” or “myself”), I acknowledge and agree to the following Assumption of Risk, Waiver, and Release, Agreement (the “Agreement”):

Assumption of Risk, Waiver and Release of Liability:

I agree that (i) I have been made aware of the global pandemic of COVID-19, the proper precautions to take, the proper hygiene methods, and the risks associated with COVID-19; (ii) I have been made aware of the fact that social distancing is a necessary cautionary step in the prevention and treatment of COVID-19; (iii) I have been given the opportunity to engage in social distancing in connection to my involvement in the Event; (iv) if I feel sick or unwell at any time during the Event, I will immediately remove myself from the Event; (v) prior to the execution of this Agreement, I do not demonstrate symptoms of COVID-19 as of the date I execute this Agreement; (vi) as of the date of this Agreement, I am in satisfactory health and able to physically participate fully in the Event without harm or injury to myself or others; and (vii) by participating in the Event, I am at risk of contracting COVID-19. Accordingly, I agree to assume all risk of injury to property or self or death in regard to my participation, in any fashion, directly or indirectly, in the Event, from any cause whatsoever, including COVID-19. As a result, I hereby waive and release TTI and its directors, officers, employees, contractors, attorneys, volunteers, and agents (collectively, “TTI Parties”) from and against all liability, obligations, damages, judgments, penalties, claims, costs, charges, and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees (collectively, “Claims”), in regard to my participation or connection to the Event. I agree that this waiver and release includes releasing TTI Parties from any Claims associated with COVID-19, including those Claims relating to my connection and/or participation in the Event.

I understand and agree that TTI maintains discretion in weighing and assessing the risks associated with COVID-19 relating to the Event, and therefore, my participation, involvement, or connection to the Event. As a precondition to attend the Event, I understand and agree to comply with all applicable restrictions as set forth by TTI, including face coverings (except upon a medical waiver), social distancing, and other safety precautions, as well as those restrictions established under applicable laws and ordinances.

In light of the ever-changing nature that COVID-19 and related diseases present, I agree that future amendments to this Agreement may be necessary to protect the health and safety of myself as well as other participants and invitees related to the Event. Accordingly, I agree to be bound under any future amendment to this Agreement which TTI may reasonably enact from time to time. In order to apprise myself of the future amendments and the terms to which I am bound, I agree, no earlier than seven (7) days prior to the Event, to check for any future amendments to this Agreement by visiting globalpartnersweekend.org/waivers (the “Website”). I agree that TTI may, but is not required to, email me an electronic version of any future amendment uploaded to the Website. I also understand and agree that any such future amendment is available upon my written request to TTI.

Indemnification:

I agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless TTI Parties from and against any and all Claims that may arise, directly or indirectly, in connection with (i) my breach or violation of any provision contained within this Agreement; (ii) my having communicated, whether in reality, alleged, or otherwise, and whether knowingly or negligently, COVID-19 to any other individual or party at or relating to the Event.

By electronically completing a checkbox titled “I agree to these terms,” I acknowledge that I read and understand this Agreement, and that I enter into the Agreement willingly.
